The Republican Legislature has taken up the task of Americanizing New York.

The first step is the arbitrary ejectment from the Assembly of five duly elected members because those members made open campaigns in advocacy of the principles of the party they represent.

Special elections must be held in the districts represented by the five Socialists, if they are eventually ousted from the Assembly, and the dominant majority will see that they hit the bottom.

Innamuch as no criminal charge has been lodged against these men as yet, there is nothing to prevent them from going back into their constituencles and again running for the Assembly. TWO SCRVED IN THE ASSEMBLY LAST YEAR.

Bolomon and Claessens, two of the Assemblymen rushed out of the in the last Assembly. They were President F. H. La Guardia said: elected in 1918 on the same ticket that presented their names to the voters in 1919, and they advocated the same principles last fall they advocated in 1918 when this country was at war. But the Assembly of 1919 did not bring charges against them.

It is stated here that the action of Speaker Sweet in initiating the summary proceedings against the five Socialist Assemblymen was based on committee. New York knows of the are now almost on the meatless diet must meeting here on Jan. 16 and 17.

The five Socialist Assemblymen are citizens. The Department of Justice rule governing persons accused of conspiring against the Government is that citizens falling under the ban are to be arrested and turned over to the State courts to be prosecuted under the anarchy statutes. None of the five Assemblymen appears to be on the Department of Justice lists.

Yesterday's proceeding smacked of the ballyhoo preceding the side show of a circus. For hours in advance of the meeting of the Legislature rumors were twisting here and there that the Assembly was going to "pull' something that would make everybody sit up and take notice.
